Manifest Like a Mofo

A simple tool to bring your most urgent desires into your now... with zero drama!

If you're seriously ready to bring your most important desires, experiences, and solutions into reality, you've got to get your head out of the stress zone. Stress shuts down your power to think, create, and act like a confident miracle maker.

Creating one big dream after another is cinchy when you turn your attention away from preconditioning from your past or current circumstances and other people's opinions. There's zero truth to you not being able to manifest whatever the hell you want, when you want it.

This simple Manifest Like a Mofo tool will breathe life force into your desire so that it can begin presenting you with concrete evidence of its forthcoming delivery... often instantaneously. But if it doesn't come immediately, commit to playing the long game so you're not wound up tight counting the minutes and progress.

There's nothing you want that can't be delivered.

Nothing is too big, soon, hard, complicated, or impossible.

Nothing.

Immediately below, you'll see an example of how to use this tool, then use the fillable form to manifest your personal desire without making it a big hairy deal.

The BIG desire I command (since I'm the one in charge!) and call into my life right now is...
(Write in present tense like you're sharing your exciting news with a friend.)

ie. Our cabin remodel is so epic we don't ever need to upgrade.

I've turned my "yeah, buts" (the stuff I fear may not be possible) about this desire into decisions about the way this is going to go down.
(Again, write in present tense like you're sharing your exciting news with a friend.)

ie. Steve and I were super aligned with all the choices of remodel and décor so it was fun to do. We adored our architect and upleveled all of our ideas! The forest service and county were SUPER easy to work with and approved us within days... blew everyone away except us. The carpenters kicked ass, and they completed everything before snow ski season. W00T! It was easy to pay cash for everything because the desire for the cabin brought massive new abundance into our life through both of our businesses. We were also able to start improving our primary residence at the same time because this was our best financial year ever.

The truth about calling this desire into my life right now that feels good is...
(Truth feels empowering, solid, and breathes life force into you. Anything else feels crappy because it's not who you are or what is true.)

ie. Steve and I always get what we want, and everything about this cabin has fallen into place with no effort. The red carpet has been laid out before us from the sale to furnishings to getting on the new dock. Paying for this will call forth even more money to and through our businesses because we're excited about this. Steve will get it dialed in because he loves excellence and speed of execution. Anything I want, he'll do. I'm so pumped to be able to have guests all year round with lots of space and comfort.

It's inevitable that my desire is on its way, so I no longer have to stress, control, or figure out how to "make" it happen. I'm super excited about it because...

ie. I no longer have cabin envy of those with big, open living spaces. It's going to be awesome to have central heat and air so we're always comfortable. I can already picture the big Nana Wall looking out to the lake. I'm excited to invite friends and family to stay in our paradise. Plus, I can do client VIP days and small high-level retreats here.

Fill in the blanks below from your heart, when you're in a calm state. Revisit it every morning and throughout your day as needed. Most importantly, recommit daily to your decision to bring this desire into your life right now. (Somedays aren't a thing.)

Just because.

Print and post in plain sight for best results.
